Camden Campus Advisors for Student Conduct Proceedings

Campus Advisors are staff or faculty members trained to provide assistance to complaint initiators or accused students in University Hearings or Disciplinary Conferences. A student has the right to have an adviser present at all disciplinary meetings and hearings (which include general conduct, academic integrity and Title IX matters). It is the responsibility of the student to make sure his/her adviser is present at hearings and meetings. Specific adviser availability shall not be sufficient grounds for postponing hearings or Disciplinary Conferences.

A student has the right to have a support person present at all disciplinary meetings and hearings. It is the responsibility of the student to make sure his/her support person is present at hearings and meetings. Support person availability shall not be sufficient grounds for postponing meetings, hearings, or Disciplinary Conferences.
