Camden Campus Advisors for Student Conduct Proceedings: Campus Advisors are staff or faculty members trained to provide assistance to complaint initiators or accused students in University Hearings or Administrative Conferences. A student has the right to have an advisor present at all disciplinary meetings and hearings (which include general conduct, academic integrity and Title IX matters). It is the responsibility of the student to make sure their advisor is present at hearings and meetings. Specific advisor availability is not sufficient grounds for postponing hearings or Administrative Conferences. A student has the right to have a support person present at all disciplinary meetings and hearings. It is the responsibility of the student to make sure their support person is present at hearings and meetings. Support person availability is not sufficient grounds for postponing meetings, hearings, or Administrative Conferences.
